ORDER:-

Sri M.Rathnam and others of Chilakaladona Village of Mantralayam Mandal filed petition before the Hon'ble A.P Lokayuktha, Hyderabad and made a complaint about the community claim of Sri Dasari Lingamurthy that he does not belongs to Mala Dasari, SC Community.

In this regard the above caste issue was taken for enquiry by the District Level Scrutiny Committee and the committee submitted its findings as noted below,

Findings of the District Level Scrutiny Committee:

The Revenue Divisional Officer, Adoni has submitted that, he visited Chilakaladona Village of Mantralayam Mandal along with the Tahsildar, Mantralayam Mandal and enquired into the matter and opined that in this case, the Dasari caste people of Chilakaladona Village may be treated as Dasari Caste, which comes under BC-A, and the Caste certificates issued earlier by the Revenue Officers as Mala Dasari are liable for cancellation on the following vital points.

1. The Dasari Caste people are residing in the midst of the Village and more over the Dasari caste houses are surrounded by the BC caste people.
2. The Dasari Caste people never faced the stigma of untouchability in the Village.
3. The Dasari caste people never dig the grave pits for other caste people. If any person of Dasari Caste people died in Chilakaladona Village, the grave pit will be dug by either Madiga or Mala caste people only.
4. The Dasari caste people never married with SC Madiga or Mala caste people.
5. The life style of Dasari caste people of Chilakaladona Village is like the other caste people and there is discrimination to SC caste people.
6. The Dasari caste people are never hindered to enter into any Hindu temple in the Village by other caste people.
7. The Dasari Caste people entered their names in all their Revenue Records and ration cards with the Dasari caste but not Mala Dasari caste.
8. The BC Community people, SC Community people and VRAs of Halaharvi Village of Nandavaram Mandal expressed that Dasari caste people of Chilakaladona Village are belonging to Dasari caste but not Mala Dasari caste.
9. The voters' list of Chilakaladona Village for the year 2016, also verified and it reveal that the names of the Dasari Caste people carry the prefix 'Dasari' or 'D' but not Mala Dasari.
10. The customs and traditions of Maladasari people are not followed by the Dasari caste people.
11. As could be seen from the statement of the Tahsildar, Mantralayam Mandal it is observed that the procedure adopted by the Tahsildar, Mantralayam in issuance of caste certificates as Maladasari in favor of Sri. Dasari Lingamurthy S/o Late Ramalingappa is in vague manner, the procedure laid down in the Act 16/1993 did not followed by the Tahsildar, Mantralayam.

Taking consideration of all aspects of culture, traditions, customs and practices professed by the people of Mala Dasari Community and as per the statements of the village elders, kith and kins of the Dasari caste people, Revenue Divisional Officer, Adoni reported that the caste certificate issued as "Mala Dasari" to Sri. Dasari Lingamurthi S/o Late Ramalingappa and his kith and kins are liable for cancellation.
